

Meine lieben Freunde, Familie, Unterstützer, Kollegen, Schüler/innen und deren Eltern, Nachbarn, anonyme Spender, passive Leser, nun kommen doch noch ein paar Grüße zum Jahreswechsel. Ich war überwältigt, von den wunderbaren Worten, die geschickt worden. Ich habe zu jedem Text nochmal ein Foto beigefügt. Es gibt sogar noch ein paar mehr Texte und Grüße, aber ich habe hier nur eine kleine Auswahl getroffen. Ich hoffe, die Worte auf Englisch sind verständlich, ansonsten meldet Euch, ich übersetze gerne!!! Ich habe jetzt kurz vor Weihnachten noch dem einen oder anderen schnell aus der Patsche geholfen, mit ein wenig Transportgeld, Essengeld, Arztrechnung bezahlen etc. Das neue Schuljahr steht an und es müssen neue Schulsachen und Uniformen gekauft werden usw. Desweiteren beginnt für einige ein ganz neues Leben ab Januar, denn sie dürfen eine Ausbildung machen.

Weihnachtsgrüße aus Südafrika, hier ein paar wenige:

Hier ein paar Worte von Slie aus Durban, Sie geht ab dem 5. Januar zur Jabus Academy um eine Ausbildung als Schneiderin zu machen: Ich kenn sie persönlich seit 2016 und sie ist mir eine der liebsten Begleiterinnen in Südafrika. Einige von meinen Mitreisenden haben sie auch schon kennengelernt:

Hello Everybody who helped me about my school fees. I am very excited about what you did to me. I don't have words to say thank you the way I feel. I think now it's a time for me to shine. It was always my dream to study. God bless you all, merry Christmas, Nompilo Slie

Und hier unsere andere Schneiderin Slindile, die in Richardsbay anfängt bei der Jabus Academy am 06. Januar, und die seit langer Zeit monatlich unterstützt wird, um die Asthmamedikamente für ihren Sohn zu kaufen. In diesem Jahr habe ich ihrem Sohn zum Geburtstag ein Fahrrad finanziert: 30 Euro war der Preis und seitdem steigt der kleine gar nicht mehr ab vom Fahrrad!!!!

Thank you so much Karin for everything You have done for me this year, may God bless you, I bought medication for my son and he got the wonderful bicycle. But I am most excited to go to School soon and get my education. I cannot thank you enough for this life changing opportunity. Merry Christmas to all of you from Slindile

Nun ein paar Worte von Sibah, unserem Musiker und Tontechniker

Dear Karin. I hope this finds you well.

I'm writing this to you with great gratitude in my heart. For the past three years I've known you. You have been nothing but good to me. You took me to school, gave me a life. The road towards finishing my Diploma hasn't been an easy one but you've been there from the start until now. I have managed to finish up my school time successfully. I still have a long way to go which is doing my hours (internship). Which also won't be a problem. I've managed to achieve greatly since you've been part of my life. I got myself a feature with Master KG, I've been featured in most gigs, my work has been playing on SA's biggest radio stations. I'm proud of the person I've become, and all thanks to you for your contribution. I wish I could have something to express the level of gratitude in my heart. Words alone can never be enough. I appreciate you. I thank you. May God keep you and your family safe during these hard times of the pandemic.

Whenever I think about the things you've done for me.. I just feel the tears in my eyes.. I don't know where would I be honestly, without you. Greetings from Sibah

Tja, gefolgt von seinem Nachfolger auf deem South West Media College in Johannesburg, unserem neuen Schüler Thamie, der aus dem Township in Port Elizabeth kommt, ohne Familie, sogar seine beiden Geschwister sind jung verstorben. Er ist wirklich nach Johannesburg gekommen mit 2 T-Shirts, Badelatschen und 1 kaputten Jeans.
